Ike Reports On Six-Year Total

U. S. Has Shipped $12.4 Billion In Arms To Its Allies

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower told Congress today the United States has shipped more than $12,400,000,000 worth of planes, tanks, guns and other military supplies to free world countries during the last six years.

About 900 million dollars worth was shipped during the last half of 1955, Eisenhower said in a semi-annual report on the mutual security program.

He gave no breakdown of either the amounts or the items shipped to individual countries.

One of the main achievements of the Mutual Security Program, he said, has been to assist in building up the forces of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization countries in Europe, including Greece and Turkey.

The NATO members, he added, have put up about 85 per cent of the cost of their military development during the six-year period of the program's existence. The United States contribution has been about 15 per cent.

The United States also has been building up its own armed strength on the Continent, Eisenhower reported, with shipments of new weapons including "Nike, Corporal, Honest John and Matador missiles, tanks, guns and other military supplies to free world countries during the last six years."

"The United States plans to provide its NATO partners with certain types of modern defense weapons and equipment which we are now furnishing in increasing numbers to our own NATO forces in Europe."

"Many European countries are now able to finance a greater share of the cost of maintaining their existing forces using United States equipment furnished in prior years. A greater proportion of United States assistance can therefore be used in helping them acquire the new weapons necessary for strengthening the common defense effort."

Eisenhower said the general magnitude of forces maintained by all countries receiving U.S. assist-

Man Sought For Church Slaying Gives Self Up

One Killed, Five Hurt As Sniper Fires Into Crowd Of Worshipers

NEW YORK (AP)—Tony Tudorache, sought for questioning in a fatal shooting at a church Saturday night, surrendered to the district attorney today.

Tudorache, a 60-year-old handyman, vanished after the wild sniping assault at St. Dumitru's Romanian Orthodox Church.

Police found a rifle and ammunition in the man's room in a building across the street. The window commanded a view of the church vestibule.

The church warden, Vasili Cucula, 66, was killed and five persons were wounded as bullets peppered a crowd of worshipers outside the church for midnight services.

Asst. Dist. Atty. David Worgan said Tudorache, alias Tony Sava, alias Costachi Mihalachi, had surrendered.

"I understand I'm wanted for questioning," the man reportedly said as he walked into the office of Dist. Atty. Frank S. Hogan about 9:10 a.m.

Immediately after the surrender, detectives hurried to Hogan's office with the rifle and ammunition found in the man's room.

Police earlier had described Tudorache as a disgruntled man known in the neighborhood as being "against everything." A handyman and sailor, Tudorache came here about 30 years ago from Romania.

No motive has yet been established for the fatal shooting.

The five persons wounded suffered only minor hurts.

Whether Cucula was the intended target was not known.

Former Romanian Princess Ileana, one of the worshipers, said the sniper "tried to kill either me or the priest or both of us."

She said the sniper may have been "a tool of the Communists." They hate the church and the royal family tremendously," she added.

The ex-princess is a sister of the late King Carol of Romania. The church's priest, the Very Rev. Florian Gaidau, was twice jailed by the Communists in Bucharest before coming here as a refugee. He said Tudorache was a "trained agent" of the Communists and was sent to make trouble.

Tudorache "has threatened me and very many others of the congregation," Father Gaidau added. Police denied any Communist angle to the shooting.

Police described Tudorache as a "disgruntled dissenter" and a heavy drinker who had lived in the neighborhood of the church for 20 years.

120 Smucker Plant Workers OK Strike

ORRVILLE, Ohio (AP)—Some 120 workers at the J. M. Smucker Co. have voted to strike, but delayed the walkout until Tuesday so they could handle several thousand dollars worth of strawberries, peaches and apricots today.

The workers, who are seeking a wage increase and whose contract has expired, voted Saturday night to strike, but agreed to return today to put up the fruit that was taken out of freezers to thaw over the weekend.

The company, which cans apple butter and preserves, agreed to pay the workers for today's job at whatever rates are decided upon when negotiations are resumed.

Ralph Dellafave, vice president of Federal Labor Union 23193, said the contract expired May 4 and that bargaining had been going on for some time.

The union is seeking pay increases from 5 to 14 cents an hour for the various worker classifications. The company has offered raises ranging from 4 to 9 cents. Current pay scales were not announced.

Hot Race For Governor Highlights Ohio Primary

1 Person Hurt In 3 Weekend Road Mishaps

One person received minor injuries in three two-car traffic accidents on area roads Sunday, the State Highway Patrol reported today.

Dorothy Saling, 21, of East Liverpool was treated for abrasions of the nose and contusions of the chest at Salem City Hospital following an accident Sunday at 5:45 p.m. at the junction of Rts. 45 and 344, about four miles south of Salem.

The accident occurred when the car in which she was a passenger, driven by Robert D. Saling, 32, of East Liverpool, was struck in the rear while making a left turn by an auto operated by Wasy Juskiw, 26, of Bergholz.

The impact drove the Saling vehicle over an embankment and into the side of a house. Both autos received heavy damages. Juskiw was cited by patrolmen for speed excessive for conditions.

Cars driven by John D. Shivers, 33, of 185 W. 16th St. and J. B. Dickerson, 74, of Monongahela, Pa., received considerable damages when they sideswiped Rt. 45, four and three-tenths miles north of Lisbon, at 4:15 p.m. Sunday. Dickerson was arrested for driving left of center.

John Reed, 25, of East Liverpool was arrested by highway patrolmen for unsafe operation following an accident on Campground Rd., seven-tenths of a mile north of Wellsville, at 12:40 a.m. Sunday.

According to the patrol, Reed lost control of his vehicle while rounding a curve, causing it to go off the side of the road, over a culvert, and collided head-on with an auto parked in a driveway owned by Roy W. Snyder of Wellsville.

Both cars received heavy damages.

5 Drivers Fined Here
Five motorists, arrested by the State Highway Patrol, were fined a total of $252 and costs for traffic violations by Mayor Dean B. Cranmer over the weekend.

Fined were: Walter R. Devinney, 30, of Allison Park, Pa., $125 for overload; Herbert D. Myers, 33, of Fairchance, Pa., $47 for overload; Martin Gottschling, 22, of Alliance, $40 for no vehicle registration; Freddie P. Mills, 21, of Flint, Mich., $25 for no driver's license and Robert A. Mills, 18, of 760 Prospect St., $15 for failure to stop within an assured clear distance.

900 Hear Speakers Blast Administration

EAST LIVERPOOL — Rep. Carl Albert of Alester, Okla., praised the 84th Congress and blasted the Eisenhower administration when he spoke Saturday night at the Columbiana County's fourth annual Jackson-Jefferson Day dinner at the VFW Auditorium here.

Rep. Albert, Democratic majority whip in the House, also addressed Vice President Richard Nixon. About 900, including a large delegation from Salem, attended the banquet.

Albert declared "the 84th Congress is the most constructive in the nation's history." He charged "the Eisenhower administration is a bitter disappointment," and that "Richard Nixon is not acceptable to the American People as a vice presidential candidate who may become president."

He also lauded Congressman Wayne L. Hays of Flushing, representing the 18th Ohio district.

Representative Albert stressed what he termed the "Republican Party's broken promises to labor, small business and the farmer" and criticized the Republicans' cutback of military appropriations, failure to balance the budget and vacillation on foreign policy.

He replaced Rep. John W. McCormack of Massachusetts, House majority leader, as principal speaker. McCormack was unable to attend because his wife is seriously ill.

Albert was accompanied by Congressman and Mrs. Hays who flew from Washington to the Wheeling Airport, then drove here. Hays emphasized the accomplishments of the 84th Congress and forecast a Democratic victory next fall.

Atty. Guy J. Mauro of Salem, unopposed for the Democratic nomination for Common Pleas judge, was toastmaster. He was introduced by Herman Miller of East Liverpool.

Ferguson H. Kind, also of East Liverpool, delivered the welcome address.

Don Gosney, Columbiana county party chairman, introduced guests. They included five candidates for governor, Oscar L. Fleckner of Columbus; Mayor Frank X. Kryzan of Youngstown; Robert Reider of Port Clinton; Judge John E. Sweeney of Cleveland and Michael V. DiSalle of Toledo.

Visiting mayors, state and county candidates were presented by County treasurer Vincent Judge of Lisbon, Jess Wilson, also of Lisbon, secretary-treasurer of the county party committee and Atty. Paul Tobin of East Liverpool.

5 Democrats, 2 Republicans Campaign Hard

John Taylor Of Salem Seeks Nomination For Lieutenant Governor

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The hot race of seven men—five Democrats and two Republicans—for their party's gubernatorial nomination, adds the big interest to Ohio's primary election Tuesday.

Significant of what could be a close contest was the fact few people close to the political scene cared to "go out on a limb" with any flat predictions as to the winners.

Of particular interest to observers is the question of how the big vote of the metropolitan counties would be divided among the five Democratic candidates.

But there was interest, too, in the contests for lieutenant governor and attorney general. In all, 23 candidates seek nominations for those two offices and that of governor.

Secretary of State Ted W. Brown has forecast a voting total of 1,487,900 in the primary, at 11,714 polling places. In some political quarters there was belief that voting probably would fall below this figure. Brown's total was 37,000 under that of 1,525,055 in 1952, the last presidential primary year.

DiSalle Busy
Probably the busiest campaigner among the Democratic gubernatorial candidates was Michael V. DiSalle of Toledo, former Toledo mayor and prize stabilizer under President Truman in the days of OPA. DiSalle carried his campaign into all 88 counties and said he had traveled 15,000 miles, nearly 2,000 of them by plane.

DiSalle's four rivals also campaigned strenuously but focused a big part of their attention on vote-heavy metropolitan districts.

They are Oscar L. Fleckner, Columbus businessman and former state liquor director; Robert W. Reider, Port Clinton publisher and former state representative; Municipal Judge John E. Sweeney of Cleveland, former secretary of state; and Mayor Frank X. Kryzan of Youngstown.

Contesting for the Republican nomination are Lt. Gov. John W. Brown, former Medina mayor, and Atty. Gen. C. William O'Neill of Marietta, former Ohio House speaker.

Brown has attempted to link what he said was O'Neill's well organized and well financed campaign with so-called political bosses and "king makers." But he failed to draw a reply from O'Neill, who stayed with what he called a constructive campaign.

Taylor In Race
Three Democrats seeking the lieutenant governor nomination are John Taylor, Salem printer and former state senator; Mayor R. Edward Tepe of Norwood, Cincinnati suburb; and Roy H. Barry of Lyons, Fulton County, former state liquor department official.

Four Republicans seeking the lieutenant governor nomination are Paul M. Herbert of Columbus, who served four terms in that office and four in the Legislature; William C. Kelly, Cincinnati councilman; George V. Woodling of Cleveland, candidate for governor in 1950, and for lieutenant governor in 1952; and Tennyson Guyer of Findlay, former Celina mayor and councilman.

Five Democrats seek the attorney general nomination. They are Paul F. Ward of Columbus, party nominee in 1952 and 1954; Stephen N. Young of Cleveland, former congressman; Marion A. Ross, Columbus attorney; Paul J. George of Norwood; and Vito Adamo of Youngstown. George and Adamo also are attorneys.

Republicans aspirants for attorney general are William Saxbe of Mechanicsburg, former House

16,000-Vote Predicted In Tuesday's Primaries

Columbiana County is expected to cast 15,000 to 16,000 votes in Tuesday's primaries as it helps choose Republican and Democratic candidates for state, county and district offices.

Forecasting the probable vote, Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk of the Election Board, said he expects the total to be off about 10 per cent from the last comparable election.

Special Mail To Be Offered For Sesqui

The Salem Sesquicentennial Stamp Committee will sponsor special cacheted mail during the week of the celebration of the city's 150th anniversary June 9-16. Nate Harris, co-chairman of the committee announced today.

The decoration of this mailing will include the emblem of the event, a rubber stamped indication of the special days on which it is mailed, the special postage cancellation slug and will be franked with the special souvenir sheet issued for the Fifth International Philatelic Exhibition which opened the Coliseum in New York on April 28.

A charge of 25 cents for each cover to be sent is being made to cover the costs of postage and handling.

Collectors desiring one or more of these covers should send their address written plainly and money order to Sesquicentennial Committee, P. O. Box 173, Salem, as soon as possible prior to the opening date. A special effort will be made to have each cover mailed on a separate day, with special markings to collectors desiring more than one cover.

Perry Twp. Voting Places Are Selected

Voting places for Perry Twp. voters at Tuesday's primaries have been selected.

Voters in the eastern part of the township will vote at the American Legion Home; those in the northwest part of the township will ballot in the township trustee rooms in the Balm Building on E. State St.; and those in the southwest section will vote at the home of Arlan Fultz of the Newgard Road.

The polls will open at 7:30 a.m. and close at 7:30 p.m.

3 Candidates End Campaigns

All Claim They'll Be Nominee For Governor

CLEVELAND (P)—Three of the seven candidates for governor in Tuesday's primary election wound up their campaigns Sunday, all expressing confidence of victory.

Atty. Gen. C. William O'Neill, who is seeking the Republican nomination, attended a tea at the home of Mrs. Howard Whitaker in Lakewood.

"This is my good luck charm," he said. "I have ended each of my statewide campaigns at this house, beginning with the first in 1950, and I have won each time."

O'Neill's opponent, Lt. Gov. John W. Brown, attended a picnic in Medina held in behalf of his candidacy.

"Being an underdog in this nominating election doesn't bother me," he said in a statement. "I've always been in that position and the people of the state of Ohio have always seen fit to go against the odds makers. I'm confident they will nominate me on Tuesday."

A candidate for the Democratic nomination, Cleveland Municipal Judge John E. Sweeney, predicted he would win over his four opponents and said in a statement:

"If this campaign has done nothing else for me, it has reaffirmed my faith in the people of Ohio to see through the camouflage of the campaign and come up with a solid choice of candidates.

RETIREES AT 83 — Robert T. McMillan, 83, of Centralia, Ill., an engineer for passenger trains on the Illinois Central Railroad, sits at controls of diesel locomotive. He retired after 66 years of service, becoming an engineer in 1899.

"I am convinced that the citizens of Ohio are now conscious of the jeopardy of the two-party system in our state, and I believe their concern for the two-party system will be a hidden factor in Tuesday's election."

Goshen Grange Youth Set 'Good Time' Party

The youth of Goshen Grange will sponsor a "good time" party at the grange hall Wednesday. Tickets are available from any of the youth group. Goshen Grange also will participate in the observance of Rural Life Sunday at Smith Grange May 20 and will attend Pomona Grange at Greenford May 26.

Master Kenneth Hutcheson conducted the meeting and announced that four Goshen Grange members are among the winners in the county contests held recently at North Lima.

The Goshen winners are: Ronald Hutcheson, baking; Eva Starbuck, sewing; Ronald Rhodes, safety contest; and Marcia Herbert, seed picture. In the program of entertainment during the evening, game prizes were won by three Goshen Grangers, Harold Morrow, Kenneth Hutcheson and Mrs. John Hrvatin.

At Friday night's meeting, a demonstration for the benefit of the grange was held. Mrs. Alfred Stratton won the prize offered in a benefit staged by the juveniles.

The May 18 meeting will honor mothers. Recognition will be given to the mother with the most children, the oldest mother, the youngest mother and the oldest and youngest grandmothers.

The evening concluded with lunch served by Mr. and Mrs. Howard Groner and Mr. and Mrs. Vern Morningstar.

Ask Bids On Lease Of Berlin Dam Concessions

Bids will be accepted until 11:15 a.m. (EST) May 16 at the office of the district engineer, Corps of Engineers, Pittsburgh District at 925 New Federal Building, Pittsburgh 19, Pa., for the lease of concession and storage rooms of the Public Sanitary Building at Berlin Dam.

The lease will cover the privilege of selling food, refreshments, fishing tackle, bait and other supplies to the general public. The lease will be for a term of two years and six months.

Further information or application blanks may be received from the district engineer at Pittsburgh.

HELD IN STABBING COLUMBUS, Ohio (P)—Police today were holding 19-year-old Roosevelt Doby in connection with the fatal stabbing of Albert Baker, 33. The stabbing occurred in Baker's hotel room here. Doby was a resident at the hotel. The two men had apparently quarreled over a woman, officers said.

Fairfield School Band Plans Concert Friday

The Fairfield School Music Department will present a band concert Friday evening at 8 in the school auditorium. The program will include selections by the beginning, junior, intermediate, and senior bands.

School majorettes will twirl during presentations of the senior band, and Miss Lois Allmon will give a fire baton solo.

John McCormick, music director, is in charge of arrangements.

The Fairfield Music Boosters will be host to an old-fashioned hymn sing Sunday at 8 p.m. in the school. On the program will be the Fairfield Mixed Chorus, Lisbon First Presbyterian Choir, Woodworth Church of the Brethren Choir, Leetonia Mennonite Octet and Columbiana Grace Reform Church soloists.

Home economics students in the school will model clothes in the annual style review Wednesday evening, May 16.

Girls from grades seven through 12 will model garments made during the year, and other articles will be on display.

Lausche Certain Of 49 Delegates

Others Contested For Democratic Seats

CLEVELAND (P)—Gov. Frank J. Lausche is assured of 49 of the 58 votes Ohio will have in the Democratic national convention in Chicago. But voters in five northern Ohio districts will decide Tuesday whether a few of his political enemies will be included in the delegation.

Lausche, unopposed for the Democratic nomination for U.S. Senate, has permitted his name to be used in Ohio as a "favorite son" candidate for President. He says his chances are "practically nil" but acknowledges that in case of a "miracle" he would accept.

He will be opposed for the Senate in November by Sen. George H. Bender, Republican incumbent who also has no opposition in the primary.

The governor said he consented to be a "favorite son" candidate for the presidential nomination to keep the Ohio delegation under his control early in the balloting and so prevent "political bosses" from making "deals."

In Tuesday's Democratic primary, there are no contests for the 24 candidates for delegate-at-large, who will cast half a vote each. The state has 23 congressional districts. Each district elects two delegates, with a full vote each. In 18 districts there is no contest.

In Cuyahoga County (Cleveland) there are four congressional districts. In the 21st, 22nd and 23rd, there are full contests for the six seats, but in the 20th, there are two Lausche candidates and only one in opposition, so the governor is assured of at least his 49th vote there.

Even if all the Lausche candidates are named by the voters, the Ohio delegation will not quite be solid. Ralph S. Locher, former secretary to Lausche and now law director of Cleveland, was disqualified as a candidate for alternate delegate in the 21st district. The election board ruled his petitions were not proper. So one of the two alternates from that district will be in opposition. But an alternate may never get to cast a vote.

In the Cleveland districts, the anti-Lausche slate was entered by county chairman Ray T. Miller, who for years has been conducting a feud with Lausche, a former Cleveland mayor. Lausche has indicated that he includes Miller when he uses the term "bosses."

Another foe of Lausche is William R. Thom, a former congressman living in Canton. He is running alone for delegate in the 16th district, which sent him to Congress for five terms. Candidates pledged to Lausche in that district are seeking the two places for delegate and two for alternate. Thom's position apparently is more anti-Lausche than "pro" any regular candidate for President. Speaking of the governor as a presidential dark horse, he says if the convention "nominates a dark horse, it would be disastrous" for the party.

Under Ohio law, candidates for delegate have to be pledged initially to a specific presidential candidate. The anti-Lausche delegates are pledged to themselves as technical candidates for President. They have not signified who they would support for the nomination.

Pair Go On Trial For Abortion Death

NEW YORK (AP) — Two men charged with manslaughter in the Christmas Eve abortion death of a 20-year-old fashion designer go on trial in General Sessions Court today.

Thomas G. Daniel, 34, and Leo Pijuan, 46, have pleaded innocent. Police said the evidence indicated the body of Miss Jacqueline Smith, formerly of Lebanon, Pa., was hacked into about 50 pieces and disposed of in trash baskets around the city. Each piece was wrapped in Christmas wrapping.

No part of the pretty blonde's body has been found.

Authorities said Miss Smith met Daniel last June and later lived with him in his East 27th street apartment.

Finding herself six weeks pregnant, she consented to an abortion in Daniel's apartment after he refused to marry her, police alleged.

Pijuan, a hospital attendant, is accused of performing the bungled operation with Daniel's help.

The most Daniel and Pijuan could get on conviction for manslaughter is 20 years in prison. New York has a special abortion statute that prevented their trial on a charge of first degree murder, punishable by death.

Police learned about Miss Smith's death after her father came from his Lebanon home and found her missing.

Buick Special
4-Door Sedan
Model 466

It's Bigger than Both of 'em

— but its price makes it one of America's 3 best sellers!

It's as simple as this:

Only two cars in all creation outsell Buick. And they are two of the well-known smaller cars.

So maybe it will pay you to ask how come Buick has zoomed to the No. 3 spot with such fast-selling company.

Well, one answer is the beautiful and brawny Buick SPECIAL you see pictured here—and the low price it carries.

It's the biggest bundle of high-powered performance and high-fashion luxury ever offered in Buick's lowest-priced Series.

And that means more people want it and can afford it, because it's priced only a few dollars more than its two smaller-car rivals—even less than some models of those very same cars.

But the big answer comes from a sure fact more folks have discovered: you get more pure automobile for your money in Buick than you get elsewhere.

Here, you get the extra wallop of big new Buick power raised to a new high—and pouring in smooth whisper from a brand-new 322-cubic-inch V8 engine of true high compression.

Here, you get the matchless buoyancy of Buick's great new ride—the extra-safe feeling of Buick's new handling ease—the extra stretch-out comfort of Buick roominess—the extra solidity and strength of Buick structure—the extra pride and prestige of Buick's new styling and dash.

Here, too—and nowhere else—you can get the silk-smooth performance and flash-fast response of Buick's advanced new Variable Pitch Dynaflo*—the world's only transmission with the gas-saving mileage and switch-pitch action of the modern airplane propeller.

This week—this very day, if you wish—you can sample all these Buick blessings to your heart's content and your pocket's joy. Why not drop in on us and do just that?

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

Watch That Boomerang!

While Franklin D. Roosevelt was president, he was rarely criticized for being away from Washington more often than had been customary.

It was the consensus during Mr. Roosevelt's many years in the White House that it was his business whether or not he wanted to leave it for visits to Hyde Park, cruises and journeys.

There was a strong conviction that chief executives had an obligation to take care of their health and that a change of scenery was good not only for their comprehension of public affairs but their well-being.

This is recalled in connection with a study of time spent by presidents away from Washington, exclusive of time spent in illness. U.S. News & World Report has discovered that Mr. Roosevelt spent an average of 136 days a year, whereas President Eisenhower's average so far has been 124 days.

Yet, Mr. Eisenhower has been ticketed for a savage attack on this count by some of the same people who thought it was all right for Mr. Roosevelt to spend much of his time away from the capital.

We thought so, too. We never have seen any hard-and-fast connection between being in the White House and being president of the United States. A president is on the job wherever he happens to be and whatever he happens to be doing.

It would be a good move for Democrats and union bosses to lay off on this line of attack before it boomerangs some more.

Uncle Sam's Nightmare

Uncle Sam's steady nerves had come unstrung under a tireless barrage of defense news with budgetary implications.

A Navy Rocket had fallen on its nose, an atom-powered submarine had been in a collision, another Air Force bomber had fallen, Gen. Curtis LeMay had given some blue testimony about foul-ups in the new B-52's, a couple hundred million dollars' worth of planes that couldn't fly were resting heavily on official consciences and there had been depressing reports of the high cost of turnover in a draftee army in an age of mechanical specialization.

Meanwhile, all the news from the Soviet Union continued to run true to form. Everything the Russians were doing was going fine. Their H-bombs were years ahead, their rockets soared like birds, their big bombers, medium bombers and little bombers were rolling off the production lines in swarms, they had the best of this, that and everything else.

Everybody believed everything the Russians said about themselves to be true, because no one could prove it wasn't true. And this was what caused Uncle Sam's nightmare. The jittery old boy dreamed the Russians had just announced a two-million-ton whingus called a dragonsky that could swim under water with an H-bomb in its teeth, fly in the air with an H-bomb in its tail, walk on the land with an H-bomb in its belly and reproduce itself by parthogenesis, like eggs laid by old-maid turkeys.

Therefore, Uncle Sam had to make haste with a 20-million-ton improvement on the dragonsky that could do all this plus squirt fire from its eyes, emanate gamma rays from its whiskers, have twins twice its own size and propel itself into the ionosphere in time for the geophysical year.

No wonder Uncle Sam felt so good when he woke up and learned it wasn't so that his nerves quit jangling for a few hours. The fact is that if Russia announced a dragonsky today, the United States would begin to spend billions on its own dragonsky tomorrow. No one could prove the Soviet Union didn't really have one.

They've Lost Us Again

Every time the Amateur Athletic Union and the other guardians of amateurism in the United States get on the scent of professional corruption, they lose upward of 999 out of every 1,000 sports followers.

No ordinary follower of sports is equipped to keep up with the devious reasoning that enables AAU bloodhounds to know where an athlete quits collecting expense money and starts to play for pay. The copyright on the intellectual labyrinth in which the arbiters of amateurism live and play is held by them alone. No one else has the combination.

Latest AAU twist is to remove the entire track team of William & Mary College from its eligibility list because two of the team's members once competed against Wes Santee, the mile runner who has been cast into outer darkness by AAU for accepting too much "expense money."

This is guilt by association. If there's anything that mixes up Americans, it's crooked reasoning that makes someone guilty because he associated with someone else. They cannot follow that kind of reasoning.

Dixiecrats Ride Again

By JAY G. HAYDEN

Alabama Primary Indicates New Southern Revolt

WASHINGTON
The first 1956 primary in the South, in Alabama last Tuesday, indicates that that section is trending violently against its once solidly Democratic allegiance. But it remains to be shown whether this swing now will be to President Eisenhower or some new form of Dixiecrat third party.

Alabama's political history is peculiarly indicative of the ups and downs of southern political opinion. In its May primary of 1948 that state elected a delegation for the Democratic presidential nominating convention instructed to vote against President Truman or any other candidate who favored racial desegregation. Particularly, the governor of Alabama at that time, James E. Folsom, was repudiated as a "favorite son" presidential hopeful.

THREE MONTHS later the Alabama and Mississippi delegations led a walkout of southern delegates, preceding renomination of President Truman. In the subsequent election, Truman's name did not even so much as appear on the Alabama ballot. The vote of the state was 171,443 for the Dixiecrat ticket of Thurmond and Wright to 40,930 for the Republican team of Dewey and Warren.

Over all, Thurmond and Wright carried four states—Alabama, Louisiana, Mississippi and South Carolina.

In 1952 Alabama conspicuously turned back to the Democratic party. Its Democratic State Central Committee adopted a resolution, ratified by the state Supreme Court, committing every delegate chosen for the national convention to support the outcome of that body whatever it might be. Folsom was named by popular vote to head the state's Democratic delegation.

ALABAMA WAS rewarded for that shift by nomination of its junior senator, John Sparkman, for vice president. But it should be noted that, in the following November, 149,231 Alabamians voted for President Eisenhower — much the largest number received from that state by any Republican presidential nominee since the Civil War.

In the current primary Alabama turned Dixiecrat again with a bang. Gov. Folsom, who had been leading the forces of moderation as concerned racial desegregation, was beaten in a race for Democratic national committee man more than three to one by Charles McKay, a candidate known only as a fiery white supremacist.

In view of that result there is hardly any doubt that the Alabama delegation to the Democratic presidential convention next August will return to the Dixiecrat obduracy of its 1948 counterpart. Quite definitely it appears the Alabama delegates will reject initially either Adlai Stevenson or Estes Kefauver and if any northern Democrat is nominated on a platform demanding racial desegregation, the Alabamians again may walk out.

The Alabama voting no doubt is attributable to the series of recent incidents there bearing on the racial issue; particularly the storm over admission of Autherine Lucy to the University of Alabama and the Negro boycott of segregated buses in the capital city of Montgomery.

A HIGHLY IMPORTANT element in the Alabama campaign, as in other southern states, is said to have been the attitude of organized labor.

Led particularly by Walter Reuther, head of the former CIO, the AFL-CIO federation has moved strongly against Jim Crowism in all its forms, with the effect of creating violent conflict among southern labor unionists. For a long time past, both the AFL and the CIO had given lip service to the principle of racial equality, but with marked deviations in fact and practice.

In southern factories, racially mixed unionists by common consent had worked out a system by which some branches of each industry were approximately all-white, and others predominantly Negro. Everybody seemed reasonably content and the drive for union converts of both races was mildly thriving.

BUT SINCE the Supreme Court's school desegregation order, and even more so following the Montgomery and Tuscaloosa trouble, the murder of Emmett Till in Mississippi and other recent events, the unionists have drawn apart racially. There are strong symptoms even of organization of separate white and colored unions in southern states.

The AFL-CIO admittedly has withdrawn most of its organizers from the South due to this situation and there has been a total drying up of contributions by both southern union locals and their individual members, white and colored, to the political campaign funds of the new national federation.

Beauty Business

In behalf of all men and most women, something extra nice needs to be said about the beauty business.

Nothing has done more to make America the beautiful come up to its advance billing than all the beauty skills and aids that have been put to work for the benefit of women in this generation.

The beauty industry cannot make silk purses out of sows' ears, but it has done something just as important. It can bring out the best in the sows' ears, if that is all it is given to work with.

Its most spectacular results have been the improved appearance of women's hair, which as late as the first quarter of this century was still an unwieldy and untidy mop of standard-colored stuff—rarely their crowning glory.

Thanks not only to improved hair-styling, which has emancipated women from the mop-do, but even more to improved substances for maintaining, subduing and tinting hair, no man can be sure from the appearance of their hair who are the dolls and who are the frumps any more.

Whether women get the effect by going to a beauty parlor, or whether they wash and curl their own, they have found a solution to what used to be their most aggravating maintenance problem. Their next most aggravating problem, as all observers of mature judgment can testify, began to be face makeup. Once they used to dab on a little rice powder to take the shine off their faces, they were in for trouble.

But at long last they have their problem solved, thanks again to the beauty industry, which now has a special goo, paste, powder, or lotion for every possible need, in shades to match every conceivable complexion.

With no more artifice than it used to take to pinch roses into her cheeks, a feminine charmer now can simulate any color or texture of skin that takes her fancy—and do it without making an undue mess.

If it also takes her fancy to en-

Of The People, By The People, For The People

The Raiders

By GEORGE SOKOLSKY

In most companies in this country, its success, in a competitive market, is attributed to the management group who gave their fruitful years working for it, and, of course, we are adequately compensated. Suddenly it is noticeable that there is unusual activity in the stock. The unusual activity would indicate that the company is being raided. Investigation does not always disclose who is buying the stock in quantities and at prices which would indicate that the object is to gain its control.

Often such well-managed and well-established corporations have a considerable cash position and the raiders figure that even if they overpay for the stock, they can get their money back by siphoning off the ready cash of the company.

OFTEN THESE stock purchases are in "street" names; that is, a brokerage house makes the purchase in its own name but does not disclose the correct owner who may be an American or a European who may have his funds in Switzerland which refuses to disclose the names of depositors.

Sometimes the true owner of the money is an underworld character who has managed to transfer "hot" money to Europe where it becomes legitimate money. "Hot" money is money upon which no income taxes have been paid. It is very difficult to transfer such money to legitimate business but it can be done by the intermediate step of getting the "hot" money out of the United States and then investing it in American industry through corporations registered in Switzerland, Liechtenstein, Monaco, Tangier, and a number of other countries, including Canada.

THE RAIDERS then get enough stock in his possession either to control the company or to seat a number of his agents on the board of directors. These agents may or may not know the actual owner of the stock but they are associated with the front man who usually has a reputation of being a smart operator, particularly in the accumulation of reservoirs of capital for investment.

Often a 20 to 40 per cent ownership will produce control, depending upon the organization of the business. In some of the largest corporations, the control is vested in directors who only own enough stock to qualify, but the raiders cannot get into these enormous corporations in good years because in a proxy fight, they generally lose out.

Of course, whoever owns the stock of a company has a right to control it. Normally, men of means or groups possessing capital buy into operations; they are put on the board of directors, and as their object is to make money, they usually do not wreck the enterprise, although the early history of railroading in the United States is a gruesome picture of raiding and wrecking for a profit.

THE CURRENT DANGER in raiding falls under two hypotheses:

1. A share, large or small, of the capital which the raiders employ is not their own, but represents underworld "hot" money, shifted from the United States to some other country where it is legitimized by becoming the possession of a foreign corporation whose true ownership is not disclosed. The reason why such an hypothesis must be given every consideration is that otherwise those engaged in, let us say, the narcotic traffic, which must be an unreported cash transaction, have no way of legitimizing their money. The sudden influx of capital for raiding purposes would create a suspicion that such funds have become legitimized.

2. There are no reliable figures on the movement of gold from Soviet Russia into the Western world, except for a comparatively small shipment to London. Yet it is known that Soviet Russia has been mining gold in several Siberian fields, particularly the Lena field.

THEREFORE the hypothesis must be considered as within reason that some of the undisclosed accounts may be Russian or satellite investments through European intermediate companies in American companies, not only with the object of controlling them but with the more important object of causing havoc in the market at a chosen moment.

No investigation of either of these hypotheses has yet taken place nor is there any satisfactory data on the subject, except two sets of facts:

1. Raiding is increasing in American corporations by persons whose financial responsibility does not gibe with the amounts of money used in raiding.

2. There are about 11 countries with corporate laws and tax arrangements which lend themselves to raiding.

Help For Farmers

By TRUMAN TWILL

Whenever Congress fools with new farm legislation, I shudder. There is always a chance some joker in Washington will stick in an amendment to save us weekend farmers and our miniature lawns.

Some time back, the congressional fools did just that and when the air cleared and survivors counted their ears the price of wool, a cash crop for weekend sheep farmers, had lost its supports.

There's some nonsense about filling out a form to get a federal subsidy, but subsidies are for real farmers who need subsidizing, not transplanted city hicks who live in RFD for the air.

The new pitch in helping farmers is called a soil bank, which is jargon for productive land taken out of production. But since land that bears nothing but taxes and such ever-loving overhead as fence maintenance and weed control adds up to minus, the government will pay the farmers a little something for taking some of their tillable land out of production.

Even a city hick, though, can see what will happen. The land left in production will be the best. Only marginal land will be taken out of production. With the saving in time and cost from not trying to coax a crop out of mediocre land, an enterprising farmer will give more attention to his best land—and in the end there may be bigger crops than before.

It seems to me the best long-term solution might be for farmers who live within 50 miles of populated places — as most of them do — to lease part of their acreage to town mice who want to give country living a whirl but are not sure they intend to dedicate the rest of their lives to it. This would bring new capital to agricultural areas, give the transplanted townies something to do and an excuse to kid one another about belonging to the landed gentry and everybody would be happy as clams. Public policy and private purposes would jibe, something that rarely happens.

In the event the leased land had to be put into production for an emergency, such as stuffing warehouses for war, the farmers would have the option of plowing up the townies' landscaping after paying a penalty, also specified in the lease. Meanwhile, the townies themselves would be handy for supplemental farm labor. They would be the envy of all their old friends in town, moreover, because of their relative security against nuclear annihilation.

Ideas for helping farmers are thicker than politicians on the chicken - and - peas circuit before election day, though. One more will draw no special attention, especially coming from a city hick who has a hunch after seven years of fresh air in RFD that farmers are too philosophical to diffusion political screamers who tell them every four years help is coming whether they want it or not. Who shoots Santa Claus?

When congressmen come to the rescue, it's time to close the barn doors, get the place smugged down and wait for the storm to blow over. By this time next year, nothing will have changed, except there will be a few less farmers racking out the same food supply at the same prodigious rate of production.

The News invites letters from readers on all important current subjects. The letters should be brief, not to exceed 200 words and must bear the signature and address of the writer to insure publication. Letters with anonymous signatures will not be published.

Song For Park Users

("The removal of trees and shrubs to afford more parking space for a Central Park, N. Y., restaurant parking lot has stirred the city" —News item.)

Woodman, woodman spare that tree!
Touch not a single bough!
I care not in the least degree
What tavern scorns it now;
Hands off a single bush or shrub!
Touch not a tulip's grace!
Send to some super country-club
Gourmets who need more space!

Touch not one little sapling there!
Let no sharp axes swing!
No big bulldozer can compare
With willows in the spring;
I love a great, big restaurant
With grub that aims to please,
But when I'm in the park I want
No "Sorry! Out of trees!"

A TORONTO PAPER ran a classified ad, reading "Golf Clubs. Must sell or get divorce." —Puzzles us why there are not many such advertisements . . . In countless homes the little woman suffers from having to listen to her mate go over every golf-course hole by hole and is driven to desperation by late dinners, alibis, etc. . . . A man is pretty unbearable when shooting over 100, and when he gets into the 90's he can wear any wife down . . . But it is when he goes around in 89 by accident that his manner kills all love deader than a doornail.

East Germany turned out troops with the old goose step last week, indicating that some people never learn.

A girl who won the title of Miss Universe is to marry a Long Island youth and we think he will have a tough time fighting an inferiority complex . . . There are bound to be little quarrels in which a husband demands "Who do you think you are?" and the reply "Miss Universe" can be devastating.

A man with 2 1/2 million dollars has been found living in one room . . . With money worth so little these days, he would seem to be living beyond his means.

Overheard at the new movie "The Swan": "That's the picture that got Grace Kelly her chance in housekeeping."

A COUPLE OF BIG GASOLINE companies are putting out several brands of gas instead of just regular and special . . . One company has been marketing four brands through the South, and now Esso announces three brands, regular, premium and superduper . . . This can make it pretty embarrassing for the fellow who keeps pretty well broke buying only fuel he can afford. The trouble has not been that there haven't been enough types of gasoline, but rather that there has been only one type $5 bill . . . Will we be hearing the station attendant asking, "What do you want, cheap, prosperous or upper bracket gas?"

IT IS ALLEGED that the famed Tavern on The Green in New York's Central Park has a contract under which it pays the city a little over 3 per cent on the gross, but may deduct 80 per cent of all costs of alterations, improvements, etc. . . . "The Tavern On The Cuff," would you say . . .

CAPSULE CRITIQUE for "Wake Up Darling." —"Why?" — David Sarnoff just celebrated his fiftieth year in radio and got a birthday cake . . . An airwave enthusiast first, last and always, we hear he looked at the cake, asked where the tubes were and inquired whether he could get it in mahogany.

Battleship Gashes Side Of Destroyer

NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—The escort destroyer Eaton limped slowly toward port today, a 30-foot deep gash in her side—put there by the battleship Wisconsin.

The 45,000-ton battleship rammed into the 2,100-ton destroyer Sunday afternoon during maneuvers off the Virginia Capes. The weather was foggy.

Navy spokesmen here said the Eaton was turning when the Wisconsin's bow plowed into her side 190 feet aft.

No casualties were reported. The Wisconsin suffered slight damage to her bow.

PLUMBERS STRIKE ENDS

WARREN, Ohio (AP)—Acceptance of a one-year contract providing for pay raises of 25 cents an hour Sunday ended a six-day strike of 250 plumbers, pipefitters and welders. The raise brought the wage for plumbers to $3.37½ an hour.

13 Ohioans Die In Accidents

Eight Are Victims Of Road Mishaps

By The Associated Press

More than half of Ohio's weekend fatalities occurred on the roads.

An Associated Press survey from 6 p. m. Friday to midnight Sunday showed 13 persons killed in accidents, at least eight of them in traffic mishaps.

In Portsmouth, a man was fleeing police in what officers said was a stolen car he had taken at knife-point only minutes before. The car crashed into a trailer truck, ending the chase and the man's life.

A Cleveland couple died under mysterious circumstances in their home. Officers said it apparently was gas asphyxiation that killed them. The mystery lies in the couple's pet bird which suffered no ill effects although it was in the apartment where the bodies were found.

A target pistol handled by a young Hamilton County man went off accidentally and killed him.

Exploding dynamite at a stone quarry killed one man and a fall from a third-story window took the life of another.

The list of fatalities:

Saturday:

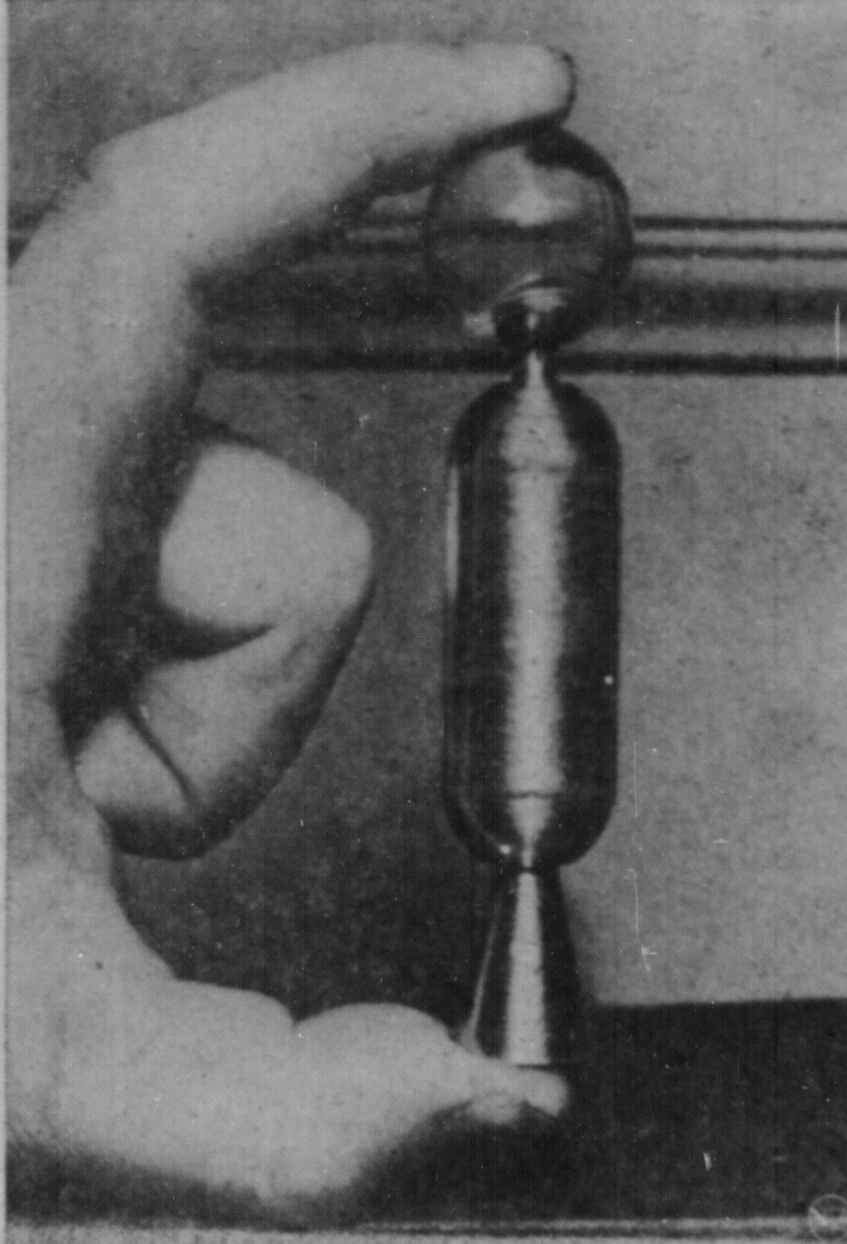

Ronald M. Donahoe, 23, Twin Valley (Scioto County) when the stolen car he was driving collided with a tractor trailer in Portsmouth as police gave chase.

Myron T. Donahue, 54, Cleveland, when his car failed to make a curve and hit a tree in the city.

Mrs. Katherine Bird, 40, Lakewood, in a three-car collision in Cleveland.

Louis Koller, 69, and his wife, Veronica, 69, apparently from gas asphyxiation in their Cleveland apartment.

Alvin Lang, 59, Cincinnati, in a fall from a third story window while installing screens.

Charles Burton, 24, Walnut Hills, when officers said he apparently shot himself accidentally while handling a target pistol at his uncle's home in Remington (Hamilton County).

Paul Ivan Hoover, 43, Nevada (Wyandot County) when dynamite was set off accidentally in a stone quarry east of Upper Sandusky.

Sunday:

Mrs. Paul Straif, 58, Columbia Station (Lorain County) and Mrs. Mabel Harper, 70, Cuyahoga Falls in a three-car collision at the intersection of Ohio 82 and 76 in Lorain County.

Herbert Henry, 19, and Robert A. Miller, 19, both of Toledo, in a head-on collision of two autos 9½ miles south of Upper Sandusky on U.S. 23.

Melvin Katterheirich, 45, New Knoxville, when the car in which he was riding collided with another auto three miles east of St. Marys on an Auglaize County road.

Drunken Man Hammers At Her Door, Woman Dies

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—"There's a man pounding on my door and he refuses to go away," a frightened, elderly woman telephoned police.

Officers, who sped to the house said they found a drunken young man at the door demanding to see "Lucy."

"I'm dying. I can't breathe. Why didn't he go away?" police quoted Mrs. Elmarta Thomas, 71. Then she died, apparently from a heart attack.

Haywood W. Langdon, 22, was booked on suspicion of being intoxicated and released on $25 bail. There was no one at the apartment named Lucy.

Former Baseball Player Dies In East Liverpool

EAST LIVERPOOL, Ohio (AP)—Funeral services for John H. Godwin, 79, a former Boston Red Sox infielder, will be held at 2 p. m. Wednesday. He died Saturday night at his home here.

Godwin, a retired potter, played second base for Boston in 16 games in 1905 and third base in 66 games of the 1906 season. Surviving are a son, John Jr., of Akron, and a daughter, Mrs. Martha Hickman, who lives here.

U.S. Air Force Again Cuts Basic Training

SCOTT AIR FORCE BASE, Ill. (AP)—The Air Force has announced another basic training shortcut for certain recruits and says it will provide the equivalent of 2,500 combat men for one year at no added cost.

Maj. Gen. Carl A. Brandt, commander of technical training for the Air Force, said starting June 1 two weeks will be cut off basic training for recruits going to technical schools lasting 16 weeks or more. This is expected to affect more than 60,000 trainees a year.

Earlier this year the Air Force cut basic training for those going to technical schools from 11 to 6 weeks. Basic will be four weeks for those attending the longer schools and will remain at six for others.

Faulty Commode Floods Houseboat, 3 Drown

HUGHES, Ark. (AP)—A faulty commode in the bathroom of a 20-foot steel houseboat flooded the craft Sunday. Three people drowned when it sank.

The houseboat keeled over in Horseshoe Lake shortly after it was anchored about 50 feet from the bank about 1 a.m. Eleven persons were aboard for a family fishing party.

The dead were identified as Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Akin of Proctor, Ark., and Robert E. Cunningham, 33, who farmed near Hughes. Mrs. Akin, 48, was the Proctor postmistress.

Presbyterian Church Scene Of Mother-Daughter Party

The Presbyterian mother-daughter party was held Friday evening in Fellowship Hall. A "plantation" theme was carried out in the program and decorations.

Wrought iron furniture groupings, doorways arched with flowers and leaves, windows decorated with geraniums and hurricane lamps and birds in cages hanging from the balconies added to the setting.

Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Smith and their daughter, Brenda, dressed in costumes of "the old South," greeted the guests as they entered Fellowship Hall.

Tenagers, dressed as "southern belles," ushered and presented the mothers with fan shaped programs. They gave nosegays to the daughters. The ushers were Mary Mercer, Martha Ann Dougherty, Joyce Coppock, Diane Crowgey, Marilyn Lipp, Betsy Young, Margaret Hanay and Elizabeth Works.

The Smiths depicted a scene of "long, long ago" featuring Mrs. Smith at the piano. Meanwhile, Mrs. Charles Erath, representing a modern mother, narrated the story of the scene to her daughters, Linda and Margie.

Lois Ann Weirick gave the toast to the mothers. Her mother, Mrs. Louis Weirick, president of the women's association, gave the response to the daughters and welcomed the guests.

Mrs. Weirick presented gifts to: Mrs. Annie Baird, 75, oldest mother; Mrs. Charles Erath with the most daughters present (five); and to the youngest daughter, Cindy Lou, 11-month-old daughter of Mrs. Fred Roth.

Recognition also was given to a family representing four generations, Mrs. Blanche Dorr of Hanover, Mrs. George Weirick, Mrs. Louis Weirick and Lois Ann Weirick.

The program was cleverly presented by Mrs. Powell Schmauch, acting as mistress of the plantation; Mrs. Ralph Walton as Magnolia, the southern "mammy," and Mrs. Ralph Wood as her daughter, "Prissy."

Cheryl Hundertmark presented a vocal solo, "Alice Blue Gown," and a duet, "Love's Old Sweet Song," was sung by Rev. and Mrs. A. Laten Carter. Mrs. Walter Hofmeister was accompanist for both numbers.

Mrs. Ralph Wood gave a reading, "Don't Be What You Ain't," with background music furnished by her daughter Mrs. E. C. Rhodes.

"Colonel" Smith introduced the Salem High School Thespians, directed by Miss Irene Weeks, who presented "Mamma Gets Married." The cast included Rita Joseph, Sally Kirkbride, June Dick, Bobbie Blount, Karen Zeigler, Lee Hardgrove, Jim A. Kelley, Kenneth Schaefer, Bob Conroy and Bob Jones.

Refreshments were served to the small children in the kindergarten room, which was decorated with mappoles and balloons.

The grown-ups were served from a "plantation" tea table set with pink, white and silver appointments. An arrangement of pink snapdragons and carnations in a white milk glass container was the centerpiece. Mrs. Weirick and Mrs. Cora Daugherty poured.

Members of the May group, headed by Mrs. Daniel Dunbar, and Mrs. Harry Barker, co-chairmen, were hostesses.

The program committee was comprised of Mrs. Schmauch, Mrs. Thomas Mercer, Mrs. Raymond Stiver, Mrs. Alfred Fitch and Mrs. Samuel Moore.

Potato Fudge Cake Comes From Erin

Long ago we had a dear friend named Mrs. Mary McCabe. She was born in Ireland and was about the finest cake baker in both the old and new world. Now, with so many potatoes around, we think it is a good time to tell about Mrs. McCabe's potato fudge cake.

Potato Fudge Cake
Cream 2-3 cup shortening with 1-1 1/2 cups sugar, 1 teaspoon soda, and 1/4 teaspoons salt. Blend in 1/2 cup dry unseasoned mashed potatoes, 3 squares melted unsweetened chocolate, and 1 1/2 teaspoons pure vanilla extract. Stir in 1/4 cup sifted all-purpose flour. Beat in 3 eggs, one at a time. Add an additional 1 1/4 cups sifted all-purpose flour alternately with 1/2 cup sour milk. Beat batter 1/2 minute. Turn into 2 well-greased, lightly floured, 8-inch cake pans. Bake 35 minutes in a preheated moderate oven (350 degrees F). Cool 10 minutes in pans. Turn out on a wire rack to finish cooling. Spread vanilla chocolate fudge frosting between layers and over top and

Miss Nellie Delp

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel A. Delp of Kensington announce the engagement of their daughter, Nellie Blanche, to Harlin David Aeschbacher, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Aeschbacher of Mineral Ridge.

Miss Delp is a senior at David Anderson High School in Lisbon, and will graduate May 31. Mr. Aeschbacher attended East Liverpool High School and is employed by Clark's Dairy in Enon Valley, Pa.

The couple plan a June wedding.

Sides. Pour a thin layer of green confectioners' icing over the top and let it dribble down the sides. Yield: Sufficient frost for tops and sides of 2 layer cakes.

Fudge Frosting

Brown 1-3 cup butter or margarine in a saucepan. Add 3 cups sifted confectioners' sugar alternately with 4 to 5 tablespoons light cream or undiluted evaporated milk. Blend in 2 squares of melted unsweetened chocolate and 1 teaspoon pure vanilla extract. Yield: Sufficient frosting for two 8-inch layers.

Green Confectioners' Icing

Combine 1-3 cup sifted confectioners' sugar and 2 teaspoons water. Blend in 1/4 teaspoon pure vanilla extract and 1 drop green vegetable coloring. Yield: Sufficient icing to dribble over the edge of an 8-inch layer cake.

Funeral service will be held at

THROUGH THE SOUND BARRIER—"Hello, son." These two simple words, spoken by James Thompson, right, of Casper, Wyo., sparked the thrill of a lifetime for 20-year-old Gene Thompson, left. For the youth had been deaf from birth and this was the first time he had heard the voice of his father or any other person. Occasion was a clinic recently held by the Wyoming Department of Education in Casper College. Gene was one of seven deaf youths there. He heard his father through an unusual new group hearing aid which magnifies speech and sounds without distortion. Using it with Gene and his dad is speech therapist Cordell Cullen.

1:30 p.m. Tuesday at the Elyria Methodist Home, 807 West Ave. Friends may call this evening from 7 to 9 p.m. at the Dickenson Funeral Home on Middle Ave.

Solomon J. Moser

CANFIELD — Solomon J. Moser, 86, of 104 Court St., a retired farmer, died of a heart ailment Sunday morning at 10:45 in his home.

Born in New Springfield Feb. 27, 1870, he was the son of Constantine and Mary Haag Moser. He had lived in Canfield for the past 36 years, coming from Petersburg.

Mr. Moser was a member of the St. Luke Lutheran Church of Midletown.

On May 2, 1895 he married Loren Barnes of Columbiana, who survives.

Other survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Mary Miller of North Jackson and Mrs. Ernest Lindquist of Youngstown; three sons, Lower R. of Twenty Nine Palms, Calif., William C. of Ellsworth, and Delmar R. of Canfield; 11 grandchildren; seven great-grandchildren; and a sister, Mrs. Josie Barber of New Springfield.

Funeral services will be Wednesday at 2 p.m. at the Williams Funeral Home in Canfield, with Rev. Donald Alber, pastor of the Cornsberg Lutheran Church, officiating. Interment will be in Canfield Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home Tuesday evening.

Electrical Storm Causes Little Damage

A severe electrical storm which dumped 31 inch of rain on Salem Sunday evening caused only isolated and individual cases of power failure, according to the Ohio Edison and Ohio Bell Telephone companies.

Glenn T. Harding, district manager of the Ohio Edison Co., said today only individual cases of power failure were reported. Lightning destroyed about 10 distributing transformers and blew fuses in about 100 other transformers. No power lines were down in the city, he said, and only in a few rural areas.

The main power lines remained intact. Ohio Edison crews worked through the night to restore power to areas affected.

Raymond J. Stiver, plant chief of the Ohio Bell Telephone Co., reported that about 50 telephones were affected in isolated areas in seven exchanges. He stated all telephones affected by the storm will be restored today.

'3 Wise Men' Map Strategy

Selected To Reshape
Atlantic Alliance

PARIS (AP)—NATO's "Three Wise Men" set out today on their historic mission of reshaping and invigorating the Atlantic alliance to combat Soviet Russia's new trade-and-aid program.

The study committee of three foreign ministers chosen by the 15-nation Atlantic Council—Canada's Lester B. Pearson, Italy's Gaetano Martino and Norway's Halvard Lange—plunged into the task of devising new strategy for countering the Kremlin switch to "soft" tactics.

The trio sorted out a batch of proposals on political cooperation and economic aid to win the neutral third of the world to the side of the West.

Among the ideas was a U.S. proposal for creation of an "Atlantic cabinet" or cold war general staff to unify the West's global policies.

Dulles Addressed Trio

Before leaving for Washington after four days of meetings with foreign ministers of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, U.S. Secretary of State Dulles told the "Three Wise Men":

"You are entrusted with the most important task since NATO was founded."

The "Wise Men" committee—so dubbed by British Foreign Minister Selwyn Lloyd—was set up in response to a call by Dulles for an "ideas" drive that would defeat communism in the contest for the hearts and minds of the neutral peoples of Asia, Africa and the Middle East. It is to report back to the NATO council of Foreign Ministers before December after consulting with the member governments.

Primarily Military

Lloyd said on his return to London that NATO would remain primarily a military alliance.

"But there is no reason why we should not take the offensive in propounding our political ideas throughout the world," he emphasized.

Pearson, Martino and Lange left for their respective capitals to obtain the approval of their governments for their new duties.

The most ambitious proposal in their briefcases is the U.S. plan for an Atlantic cabinet.

Dulles told the NATO Ministerial Council that he and President Eisenhower favored a panel of Atlantic nation leaders which would sit in almost continuous consultation to iron out differences among the Allies and harmonize their economic and political attitudes toward the rest of the world.

Members of the Atlantic cabinet would be leaders second in stature only to the foreign ministers. They could work either within the framework of NATO or in some other free world context.

Dulles said such a consultative body might be the instrument of preserving Allied unity and thus saving Western civilization from being overrun by communism.

10-Year Expansion Of U.S. Steel Planned

HOBOKEN, N. J. (AP)—To help meet the nation's steel needs, United States Steel Corp. will have to expand its capacity by a million tons a year for 10 years, Board Chairman Roger M. Blough told the annual shareholders meeting today.

But, said Blough, a substantial part of the company's earnings to be used for expansion, are "phantom profits... eaten up by inflation, almost before we get them."

After inflation takes its toll from the profits, Blough said, the money available "cannot finance progress," but must be used merely to replace worn-out steelmaking capacity.

"During the past 10 years alone, our plant and equipment costs have more than doubled," he said.

The root of the difficulty in providing funds for both replacement of facilities and for tremendous expansion, Blough said, "lies in the inadequacy of the normal depreciation provisions of the law."

"The time has come, I think, when Congress should face up squarely to the fact that these depreciation provisions no longer serve the purpose for which they were intended," said Blough. "It is time to reappraise this law and to revise it realistically."

Hydrogen Test Again Delayed

Weather Conditions
Hold Up Big Blast

ABOARD US MT. MCKINLEY, Bikini Atoll (AP)—Cautious H-bomb testers again today postponed firing Shot Cherokee.

Dr. William E. Ogle, acting scientific test director for Joint Task Force 7, said the American test might take place Thursday, Bikini time (Wednesday, U.S. time). But he also told newsmen he would not be surprised if the blast was delayed until May 15.

The blast originally was slated tentatively for Tuesday and then for Wednesday.

Weather Blamed

Weather conditions were blamed each time.

The big bang had been scheduled to take place at several thousand feet altitude after a drop from America's intercontinental bombers, the multijet B52, at shortly before dawn.

Testers decided to wait on the weather to make sure radioactive fallout doesn't drift outside the established danger zone as it did in 1954, when the Fukuryu (Lucky Dragon) Maru No. 5, a Japanese out and its crew of 23 sickened, fishing boat, was dusted with fallout.

Japanese Press Comments

The delay was announced as the Japanese press commented temperately on America's need for conducting the tests but expressed the firm conviction that all such tests should end.

Tokyo Shimbun, expressing regret that America had disregarded Japan's request that the tests be suspended, noted that the United States "is taking every

AN EGG FOR AN EGG—"Egg-laying-eggs" aren't the vogue yet, but such things do exist. Twelve-year-old Joe Hendricks of Rylie, Tex., found in his henhouse a huge egg with a normal-sized one inside it. Both eggs have a yolk and white. The white leghorn, right, doesn't appear too excited about being the phenomenon's producer.

Price Of Success

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (U. S. — Success at a wedding. He sang "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden," and afterward someone handed him an envelope containing $2.

"I thought to myself, 'Boy, how long has this been going on,'" George recalled. "I turned right then."

He and his guitar soon became fixtures on Midwest radio barn dance shows.

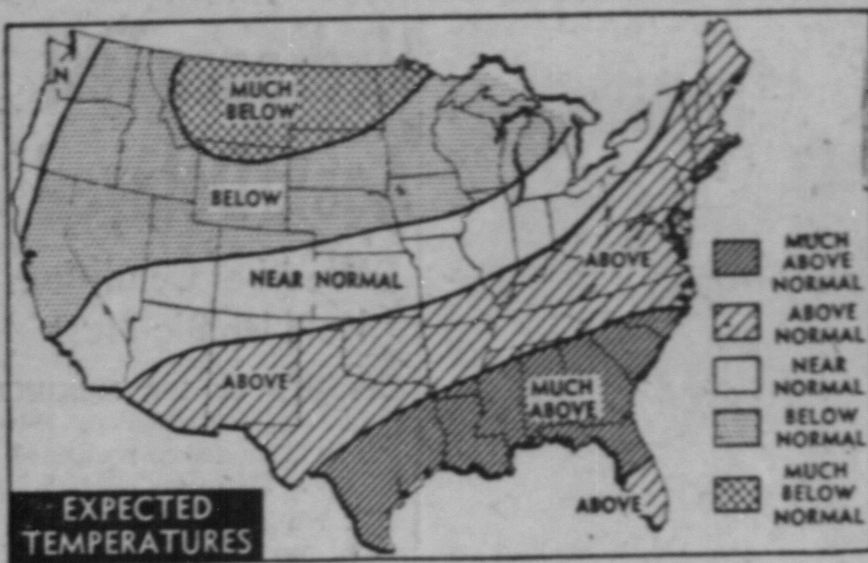

During the war Gobel, already a pilot, trained combat flyers in the old B26. It was while entertaining at Army shows that George began to emerge as a comedian. He worked up to star billing on the night club circuit.

"I never was real overconfident about what I could do or where I could go in this business," he said. "I felt that way then and I feel that way now. I just keep plugging."

Then television "discovered" him. "Little Buddy" likes being at the peak of his trade, but is less than overwhelmed by it.

"With all the satisfaction that goes with it," he said soberly, "it's not quite what it's cracked up to be."

"You don't have as much real freedom, it's not quite like it was Temperatures should average above season norms in eastern and southern portions of the country, with warmest weather in the Gulf states. Below normal temperatures are predicted in the northern half of the nation from the Great Lakes westward to the Pacific, with coldest weather in the Northern Plains.

You can't do what you want to do... you can't always go where you want to... you don't get to see who you want to."

Unlike some TV celebrities, he has never rushed into print with reports of his multi-million-dollar earnings.

The main reason I don't like to talk about what I make," he said, grinning, "is that my wife, Alice, will ask, 'Well, where is it?'"

Crash Blamed On Low Altitude of Maneuver

COLUMBUS, Ohio (U. S. — An air plane crash near Mount Vernon that killed two Kenyon College students apparently resulted from a maneuver at too low an altitude, a spokesman for the Civil Aeronautics Administration says.

Killed in the crash Thursday were Arnold P. Gilpatrick, 19, of Worthington, and Charles F. Welch, 21, Sedalia, Mo. They were flying in a Civil Air Patrol plane that plummeted to earth three miles south of Mount Vernon.

Nelson D. Miller, CAA air safety officer, said witnesses told him the plane went into a spin while flying about 300 to 400 feet above ground.

Miller said a frequent cause of a spin is trying to make too tight a turn. The pilot apparently got the plane straightened out of the spin but had no room to level out," he added.

Braves, With Only 9 Games Played, Lead National League

Redlegs Hold Down 2nd Spot

Yankees Pull Away To 2½ Game Lead

By JACK HAND
The Associated Press

Bring out the slide rule, the electronic brain and a do-it-yourself kit if you want to figure out the National League standings. The rain, the cold and the weird "spring" leave a tangle fit for a mathematician.

Milwaukee leads the league by 20 percentage points but it trails second-place Cincinnati by a full game. That's bad enough but it gets worse. The Braves also are half a game behind St. Louis, which is third on percentages.

Actually, it's all academic. If the season ended today, Milwaukee would win the pennant for percentages tell the final story. The problem arises from the fact that Milwaukee has played only nine games in almost three weeks while the Redlegs have played 17 and the Cardinals 16.

The Braves suffered their seventh rout in the last 10 days Sunday at home and estimate they have lost forever over 150,000 admissions. A virtual sellout had been assured for the game with Brooklyn.

Cincinnati won a pair from Philadelphia 10-2 and 11-9 and St. Louis split with New York. Stan Musial's homer won the first for the Cards 5-4 and Willie Mays' single and fourth stolen base helped the Giants come from behind to take the second 5-4.

Pittsburgh edged Chicago 2-1 with Ronnie Kline throwing a six-hitter and scoring the winning run. The Pirates and Cubs then played a 6-6 tie, called after seven innings because of rain.

No trouble figuring out the standings in the American League, where the New York Yankees have started to pull away from the field with a 2½-game lead over idle Cleveland and a four-game bulge on Chicago and Boston, tied for third.

Whitey Ford shut out Chicago with eight hits 4-0 and Rip Coleman and Jim Konczewski blanked the White Sox again 4-0 in the second.

Kansas City continued to club the ball, slugging Washington pitchers for a total of 29 hits in a double-header rump 10-7 and 13-3. Baltimore dumped Detroit into the cellar by winning two 6-2 and 4-3. Cleveland and Boston were rained out at Fenway Park.

Ted Kluszewski hit his second and third homers in four games since his return to the starting lineup in Cincinnati's double victory. Gus Bell also hit two and Frank Robinson one for the Redlegs off Philie pitching.

Musial's eighth homer beat the Giants in the first game at St. Louis. Jackie Collum was the relief winner.

Mays opened the Giants' winning rally in the ninth of the second game with a single and stole second, his fourth theft of the game. Daryl Spencer's double off Vinegar Ben Mizell tied the score and Dusty Rhodes' single off Ellis Riddle won it for reliever Steve Riden.

Kline singled off loser Paul Minner in the fifth and scored on Gene Freese's double for the decisive run in the Pirates' victory at Chicago. Bob Friend, Pirate ace, was clobbered in the second game and left after one inning. Bob Skinner and Frank Thomas of Pittsburgh and Ernie Banks of Chicago hit homers in the tie game.

Ford, Coleman and Konstanty did a fine pitching job for the Yanks in their sweep over Chicago. Yogi Berra hit his eighth homer with one on and Hank Bauer his sixth in the first game attack on Jack Harshman. A feature of the second game found catcher Berra completing a double play by dashing to third base to tag Luis Aparicio, trying to go from first to third on an infield out.

Gus Triandos hit a three-run homer off Steve Gromek to break a 2-2 tie for Baltimore's first game margin over Detroit and rookie Tito Francona staved off the Tigers' late threats in the second game by driving in three runs. Earl Torgeson and Ray Boone hit home runs for Detroit in the second game.

OPEN THE LINKS—Personnel responsible for the grounds at the Salem Golf Club overlook the ninth green during the blind bogey of the club tournament Saturday. Approximately 80 club members have signed up for tournament play. Pictured above (l. to r.) are: Carl Barnard, who has been greens keeper for the past 22 years; Vince Leskosky, entering his fourth year as club pro; Rudy Schuster, chairman of the greens committee; and Eddie Pukalski, chairman of the games committee and club champion for the past three years.

Barnard said the links are already in top condition and expects the biggest golfing season in the club's history this year.

Mike Klapak Wins Feature At Canfield

Mike Klapak of Warren captured the opening stock car racing feature at Canfield Speedway Saturday night before 7,148 fans.

Klapak took the lead early, then held on to edge Roy Gemberling of Kent by a car-length.

The feature was filled with numerous crashes as the late model cars put on a thrilling show.

Al Gotch of Cleveland rolled on the first lap and Ted Wise of Newton Falls lost a wheel. After Bill Cleary of Youngstown and Frank Myers of Warren crashed, Mono Goliath rolled completely over and came back on his wheels. He was rammed by several cars, but it was Dave McMurray of Boardman, who came along in his Buick Roadmaster that finished Goliath. He crashed him, head on.

Bill Forney won two events. He edged Mike Klapak in the third heat race, then beat out Gemberling in the Australian pursuit.

Time trials were taken by Gemberling in 19.27. He topped the field of 32 cars.

Next Saturday night the late model return to Canfield for another eight-race program.

O'Brien Throws Shot 61 Feet, One Inch

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—It looks like the Amateur Athletic Union will have to revise its record books again to make way for another record-shattering performance by shot-putter Parry O'Brien.

Last Saturday O'Brien uncorked a mighty toss that sent the 16-pound shot 61 feet, one inch—three inches better than his own official outdoor world mark. The toss was made on O'Brien's fifth and last attempt at the International AAU Track and Field Meet.

Regional AAU chairman Nate Long said he would submit the mark to Daniel J. Ferris, executive secretary of the AAU in New York.

"There is no reason, as far as I can see," Long said, "why it will not be recognized."

Giants Bring Up White

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The New York Giants today brought up Bill White from their Minneapolis American Assn. farm club to play first base.

Manager Bill Rigney said White would be in the lineup against the St. Louis Cardinals tonight.

Mexico City — Kid Anahuac, 126, Mexico, outpointed Gil Cadillac, 125½, Los Angeles, 10.

Havana — Orlando Castillo, 124½, Cuba, outpointed Ernesto Parra, 123½, Mexico, 10.

Buckeyes Take Two Games From Indiana

Inclement weather cut short the Big Ten baseball schedule Saturday but failed to stop Ohio State's defending champions who moved into first place with a double victory over Indiana.

The Buckeyes whipped Indiana, 7-2 and 4-1, to remain the only unbeaten team in the conference.

Minnesota pulled into second place beating Purdue twice by identical 3-2 scores and Illinois beat Iowa 8-7 after dropping the first game of a doubleheader, 9-0.

Rain washed out doubleheaders between Michigan State and Northwestern and Michigan and Wisconsin.

Airtight pitching by Bill Soter and Al Lindop backed by a first game home run by Frank Howard and a tie-breaking double by Ronnie Shay in the nightcap gave Ohio State a sweep in its three-game series with Indiana and a 4-0 record.

Minnesota came from behind twice to beat Purdue and notch a 5-1 record good for second place. The Gophers won the opener with a run in the ninth and spurred ahead in the nightcap when Purdue pitcher Royce Stroud forced in the winning run by hitting two successive batters.

Illinois remained in contention by overcoming a 6-2 Iowa lead in the nightcap after Bill Schoof had blanked the Illini with 10 well-spaced hits in the opener. The split gave Illinois a 4-2 mark, good for a percentage tie for third with Wisconsin.

Action resumes Friday with Iowa at Minnesota, Northwestern at Indiana, Wisconsin at Ohio State, Purdue at Michigan State and Illinois at Michigan.

All teams are scheduled to play doubleheaders Saturday with Iowa at Minnesota, Northwestern at Ohio State, Wisconsin at Indiana, Purdue at Michigan and Illinois at Michigan State.

Landy To Try Again Saturday To Beat Record

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Australian John Landy gets another chance to break his mile record at Fresno Saturday but he won't get another shot at his conqueror and fellow countryman Jim Bailey until fall.

Bailey, the University of Oregon junior and collegiate mile champion, best Landy and smashed the American mile record here Saturday with a 3:58.6 performance—the first mile ever run under 4 minutes in the United States.

Next on Jim's calendar is the Pacific Coast Conference North Division Meet, which won't permit a rematch with Landy at Fresno's West Coast Relays. Then Bailey will run in defense of his NCAA title and in August head back to Australia in quest of a spot on the Olympic team.

That's when the business student whose home is in Sydney will probably next meet schoolmaster Landy of Melbourne.

"I'm confident of running better at Fresno," said Landy after losing by a stride to his countryman. "I was satisfied with the time. I didn't think he'd run better than 4:02."

John was clocked at 3:58.7, compared with his world mark of 3:58 set in 1954 at Turku, Finland. He made no excuses for his defeat by the powerful Bailey, who took over the lead about 110 yards from the finish. He'd started his move with 220 left and thought his nearness would just give Landy impetus to go on to a fast time.

"I didn't think I could do it," said the 26-year-old Australian of his victory.

Baker, Holman Bout To Open Eliminations

By The Associated Press
The "come-one-come-all" heavyweight sweepstakes opens Wednesday night with Bob Baker of Pittsburgh and Johnny Holman of Chicago in a 12-round match at Miami Beach, the first of an elimination series designed to uncover a successor to the retired Rocky Marciano.

As Baker is No. 3 and Holman No. 4 in the latest Ring magazine ratings (NBA rates them 2-4), the match appears to be as good a place as any to start the sifting. Neither should be expected to emerge as another Marciano. Baker is a 9-5 favorite.

One other elimination match has been set in the heavyweight ranks, a May 23 pairing of Satterfield and Johnny Summerlin of Detroit at the Olympia Stadium in Detroit.

Joe Giardello, once a high-ranking middleweight, returns to New York for the first time in over two years tonight to box Charley (King) Cotton of Toledo, Ohio at St. Nicholas Arena on television.

The Philadelphia boxer was granted a license in New York April 27 after serving part of a Pennsylvania jail term for assault and battery.

Greatness Of Needles Debated

Won Derby In Slow Time Of 2:03.4

By ORLO ROBERTSON

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—The question of whether Needles, 1956 Kentucky Derby winner, is a great horse is still to be answered but there's no doubt that he is one of the most exciting 3-year-olds in many a year.

The Preakness at Pimlico May 19, and the Belmont Stakes at Belmont Park June 16 should furnish the answer to the greatness question. It was still being argued today as the stragglers of the 100,000 who sat in on Saturday's thrilling race departed for home and Derbytown returned to normalcy.

In the morning work hours this bay son of Ponder-Noodle Soup, owned by Jack Dudley of Stillwater, Okla., and Bonnie Heath of Tulsa, Okla., and Fort Lauderdale, Fla., is a temperamental playboy who gets his own way more often than not.

But in the afternoon he is a ruthless businessman, never content until he has ripped aside all his opposition and achieved his objective.

That is the way he won the $167,550 Derby by three quarters of a length over Calumet Farm's Fabius and left 15 other top 3-year-olds trailing far back.

The Derby victory, coming on top of two 100-grand triumphs in Florida, boosted Needles' earnings for the year to $332,250 and for less than two seasons of campaigning to $462,055.

Needles' Derby time of 2:03.4 for the mile and one quarter over the lightning-fast Churchill Downs track was slow compared to Whirlaway's record of 2:01.4 made in 1941.

That's where the argument starts over whether the Florida colt is a great horse. Those who say not point to the time.

Redlegs Win Two From Philadelphia

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Cincinnati Redlegs get a day off today after more than a week of concerted bootstrap tugging that has lifted them to second place in the National League.

It was only 10 days ago that the Reds were dead last. But now they have 10 wins in their last 11 games, the only lapse being a 5-1 trimming by Pittsburgh.

Their vaunted batting attack sprayed hits all over Crosley Field Sunday in two high-scoring triumphs over Philadelphia's Phillies—first 10-2, the second, 11-9.

The Reds first game of the season against the New York Giants comes Tuesday night—the first of two contests.

And it looks as if the Reds will be at nearly peak strength. Only Wally Post is a doubtful starter after painfully jamming his thumb trying for a liner in Saturday's Pittsburgh game.

Post sat out Sunday's doubleheader, but is expected to return to action against New York.

Cincinnati hits were numerous and the Phillies brought out five hurlers in each game seeking to halt the Reds.

Ted Kluszewski, benched for seven games for being overweight blasted a homer in each game. Gus Bell did the same. Rookie Frank Robinson got a homer, a triple and a double in the first game.

Cincinnati's 15 hits in the second game were well needed. The Phillies started a steady uprising after the Reds set up an 8-0 lead and the Philadelphians put two men on base in the ninth inning before the Redleg win was secure.

Major League Stars

By The Associated Press
Batting, Gus Zernial, Athletics—lifted batting average from .298 to .352 with five hits in seven trips including two homers, double and two singles and drove in five runs in double victory over Washington, 10-7 and 13-3.

Pitching, Whitey Ford, Yankees—became first pitcher in majors to compile 4-0 record by shutting out White Sox with eight hits 4-0 in first game of doubleheader.

Mary Downey Captures Southern Amateur Title

HOT SPRINGS, Va. (AP)—Mary Ann Downey of Baltimore started preparation today for her appearance in next month's Curtis Cup Matches in England after winning her first Southern Women's Amateur Golf championship Saturday.

Miss Downey defeated Wanda Sanchez of Baton Rouge, La., 2 up, in the Southern's 36-hole finals. Afterwards, she said that "This was one of my greatest victories—maybe the biggest one." She won the women's Trans-Mississippi in 1951 and the Women's Eastern Amateur in 1953 and 1955.

Miss Downey had to go the full 36 holes before she edged Miss Sanchez in the terrific heat that baked the 6,312-yard, par 74 Cascades Course.

Pirates' Long Says He Seeks To Repay Debt

CINCINNATI (AP)—Dale Long, 30-year-old first baseman whose lousy .404 batting average is helping make the Pittsburgh Pirates the surprise of the National League, says he's trying to pay a debt to the men who have shown faith in him.

Those men are the youthful leaders of the Pirates—General Manager Joe L. Brown and Manager Bobby Bragan.

"You can't explain hitting as well as I am," said Long who had a homer and single in four trips as the Pirates snapped a Cincinnati 6-game winning streak 5-1 Thursday.

"Maybe it's because I want to do all I can to help these fellows, Joe Brown and Bobby Bragan, who have been so wonderful to me in baseball."

Long was fined $25 by Bragan early this season for cutting off a throw from the outfield to the plate in a game the Pirates lost to the New York Giants. But Long made no mention of that. Instead, he went back to the 1953 season when he was with Hollywood of the Pacific Coast League and Bragan was managing the club.

"Bragan told me in Hollywood in 1953 that I was going to be with his club. At the time I was hitting .210 and had only three homers. I was worried because of a conditional contract I had signed. I talked to Bobby and he said not to worry. I went on from there to win the most valuable player award in the Pacific Coast League."

As for Brown—who was president of the New Orleans Club when Long was there in 1953, Long said: "Joe treated me as though I was his own son."

Official Comments Salem Hunting Club

State Auditor James A. Rhodes today commended members of the Salem Hunting Club for the "fine contribution they are making to conservation." The group has made much progress, Rhodes pointed out, since the club was chartered and incorporated by the state in 1948.

Two years ago the club leased 60 acres of school land from his office, Rhodes said. This property is part of Section 16 of Salem Township in Columbiana County.

The Salem club has instituted a planting program that has resulted in the setting out of 2,000 pine trees and 450 multiflora hedges. Fields also have been plowed for grain feeding of wild life, Rhodes said.

16 Ways Listed To Save Money In Building Home

By DAVID G. BAREUTHER

A good way to lose money is to try to save money in the wrong places when you're building a house.

There's a temptation to throw your book of dreams into plans for a new house. Then when costs begin to exceed expectations, you have to cut some place. There is where danger enters. It's only human to try to spare your dreams—mere gadgets, perhaps—and cut where it won't show.

Even professional home builders fall into this trap under pressure of competition. A trade publication once featured "16 Ways to Save Money When Building a House." Sadly they were ways for a builder to save and it would be hard to estimate how much some of the short cuts cost home buyers in the long run.

Some builders refuse to compromise on quality. After inspecting luxury homes in the famous estate country of Long Island's North Shore, we asked the builder, Daniel B. Grady of Oyster Bay, N.Y., where he would suggest economy in construction.

"Never skimp on any permanent feature," he said. "You can save on frills and nonessentials to be added later. But economic maintenance and operation depend on the quality you build into your house.

"There are at least 16 ways not to save money when building a house. They apply to houses in every price class."

SO HERE ARE Dan Grady's 16 points to watch:

1. Land and location are paramount. Choose your site with care. Natural endowments cannot be duplicated. Check local zoning laws. A good house in a poor location depreciates in value with its surroundings.

2. The plan of your house is highly important. Are rooms large and well arranged for comfortable living? It may be better to have fewer large rooms than many uncomfortable cubicles. Avoid freakish layouts that may undermine your investment by lack of popular appeal.

3. Study the topography of your land to insure proper grading and drainage away from the house.

4. The foundation is vital. It must have adequate and firm footings. It must be waterproofed ac-ording to the recognized needs for your area.

5. Make sure of structural soundness from footings to ridgepole. Firmly brace all corners of frame-work. Diagonal sheathing and sub-flooring strengthen a structure. Bridging between floor joists adds to solidity.

6. Use soundly seasoned lumber throughout. Rough lumber is stronger than dressed lumber for structural use.

7. Use plenty of nails. The slight extra cost of screw type nails for their holding power and aluminum nails to avoid rust outside more than justifies their use.

8. Maximum rather than adequate insulation is now the rule not only to stop heat loss in winter but to cut air conditioning costs in summer.

9. Vapor barriers should seal all inner wall surfaces to prevent moisture from destroying the efficiency of insulation.

10. Roofing and flashing should be as permanent as possible. Heavy grades of asphalt shingles cost more, but last longer. Flashing must be rustproof.

11. THOROUGH weatherstripping and caulking not only reduce heating costs but keep out moisture that causes paint failures.

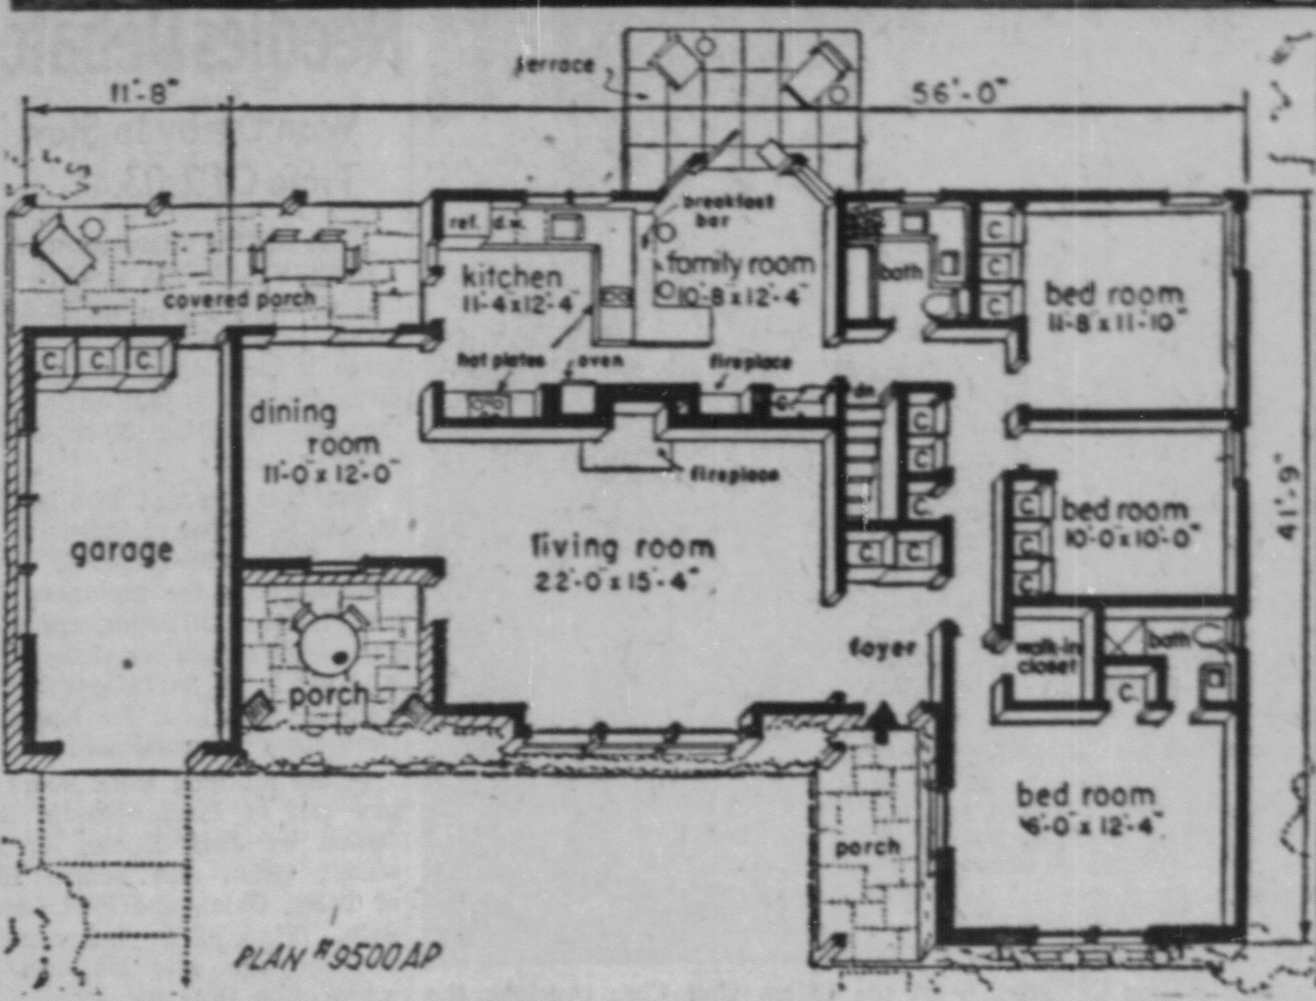

12. The steadily growing use of more electrical appliances calls for adequate electrical wiring. A 100-ampere lead-in is now the minimum. Numerous circuits and outlets will give you maximum electrical efficiency.

13. Quality plumbing and heating are permanent essentials that will save you money in the long run.

14. Plaster provides more sound-proofing between rooms than single dry wall construction. Double dry wall construction of gypsum wall-board properly installed may cost more than plaster but has more advantages.

15. Don't economize on permanent finishing, such as clay tile in bathrooms. Thin-bed setting—pasting the tiles directly on wall-board—may be adequate for decoration on walls not subjected to water, but shower stalls call for regular mortar bed tile setting.

16. Landscaping and shade trees are part of the home. To skimp on a lawn costs more within a few years than a lawn properly planted. A shade tree often has a value of $500 and the importance of shading houses for air conditioning is adding more value to trees.

A GLAMOROUS RANCH HOUSE with fireplaces in living room and family room, this plan is designed for a maximum of family enjoyment. A big informal family room is part of the kitchen. It has glass doors opening on a rear garden terrace. Sliding glass doors also open from dining room to covered porch. This is plan 9500AP by Rudolph A. Matern, architect, 90-04 161st St., Jamaica 32, N.Y. The house covers 1,662 square feet exclusive of garage.

"Gadgets," says Grady, "which may seem dear to your heart, are here today and gone tomorrow. Superficialities, decorating and furnishing, can be just as effective, enjoyable and comfortable under a limited budget as if you spend a fortune on them. But a good house is expected to give you a lifetime of efficiency in maintenance and operation. It is your prime investment. It is better to restrict its size temporarily with possibilities for future expansion than to sacrifice on basic necessities."

Home Repair Dos, Don'ts

USING A JIGSAW

DO . . . select a jigsaw as the right power tool for your home workshop if you plan on doing decorative cutting, which is its main function even though it performs several other tasks.

DO . . . use a multiple pulley so that you can regulate the speed of the motor—using high speeds for soft materials, low speeds for hard materials.

DO . . . feed the work slowly with one hand, using the other hand to turn and guide the work.

DO . . . use jeweler's blades on light materials when sharp curves and abrupt corners must be cut.

DO . . . make use of the hold-down to prevent the stock from being raised from the table during the cutting.

DON'T . . . force the work into the blade unless you want the blade to break.

DON'T . . . allow the blade guides to set so far forward that they reach the gullets of the saw teeth.

DON'T . . . insert the top end of the blade in the jaws of the upper chuck until the plunger is raised as high as it will go.

DON'T . . . mount the jigsaw on a table or stand that will vibrate; make or buy a rigid wooden or metal stand.

DON'T . . . overlook the jigsaw as probably the best power tool (because of its safety and ease of handling) with which to break a youngster into the mysteries of the workshop.

4 SAVED OFF TUG
PORT CLINTON, Ohio (U)—A 39-foot fishing tug occupied by four brothers was rescued by the Coast Guard Sunday after it developed engine trouble in the rough waters of Lake Erie about two miles off Marblehead Point.

Now Is Time To Fertilize Your Garden

WHEN you plant, keep the soil loose so the roots can get air.

By HENRY FREE

Occasional stormy weather in the spring should not deter the gardener from performing the major jobs. First on the list of springtime jobs is the cleaning up of debris throughout the yard and garden. Most shrub and flower beds are littered with leaves which can be turned to add humus to the soil, or put on the compost pile for future use.

Fertilizing is advisable in the spring because plants need food most when they start into active growth. The nitrogen content is quickly available, but the other essential nutrients in the fertilizer are not taken up by the roots until late in spring.

Be sure to use a balanced fertilizer, preferably one with an analysis strong in phosphorus. There are several good ones on the market. Apply at the rate of 3 pounds per 100 square feet, spread evenly and cultivate it in to a depth of 2 inches. With the same fertilizer it is not too late to feed the lawn.

The home gardener will have to adjust his planting schedule with the weather. Bear in mind that it does not pay to work in soggy soil. If you must plant, find some dry soil and use it mixed with peat moss, about the roots. While soil must be made firm about the roots it should not be tramped so that the roots are deprived of air.

When fertilizing fruit trees in the spring, use a mixture strong in phosphorus, as mentioned above for trees, shrubs and lawns. Use the general rule of about 2 pounds of fertilizer for each inch of trunk diameter. Spread the fertilizer under the outer edge of the branches, then cultivate and water it in. Fruit trees will benefit from a mulch of old manure, compost, peat moss, or even the litter removed from the flower bed. Incidentally, it pays to spray fruit trees, otherwise you are bound to have wormy apples and pears.

The home gardener starting his own vegetable and annual plants indoors should follow these steps to insure success.

Sterilize the soil mixture before sowing seeds. Use a sandy mixture that has organic matter to hold water yet is loose enough to drain easily.

Buy good seed from reliable dealers.

Provide the right temperature, 55 to 60 degrees, before and after germination.

Provide plenty of light after germination.

Maintain moisture in soil by checking twice daily. The soil should be moist, never soggy. Seedlings should not go to bed wet, water in early afternoon.

Rules For Marriage Of Divorced Persons Studied

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—A move to relax the Methodist requirements for marriage of divorced persons was before the church's law-making General Conference today.

A committee on the ministry, headed by the Rev. James A. Chubb, of Grand Island, Neb., recommends that pastors be directed only to exercise "special care" in determining the fitness of divorced persons to marry.

Under the present church discipline, ministers are instructed not to marry divorced persons whose former spouses are living except in these specific circumstances:

1. When it is "clearly established by competent testimony" that the person was the "innocent person" in a divorce caused by "adultery or other vicious conditions which through mental or physical cruelty or physical peril invalidated the marriage vow."
2. When divorced couples want to be reunited in marriage to each other.

Sunken Tub, Glass Walls Feature the Luxury Bath

TODAY'S BATHROOM takes on glamorous proportions in many of the newer homes. Here a sunken bathtub rests in the floor with its top edge raised merely the height of one tile. A panel of glass blocks admits light without a view. A heat lamp is shown in the ceiling.

DOUBLE LAVATORIES in a gracefully curved vanity table (one lavatory not showing in left foreground) feature the luxury bathroom. An outer wall of glass blocks adjoins the large mirrors to provide abundant light for makeup.

Tape Recorded Love To End In Marriage

CAIRO, Egypt (AP)—A California disc jockey and his green-eyed sweetheart of the Nile — who met face-to-face for the first time Sunday after a long - distance tape recorded romance — say they'll marry next week.

Carroll H. Pederson Jr. of Salinas whisked pretty Laurence Shaker, 22-year-old Cairo secretary, to the desert plateau overlooking the ancient Egyptian capital Sunday night.

There in sight of the Great Pyramid on a desert bathed in moonlight, he placed on her finger the ring that sealed their electronic-age engagement.

Their airport meeting was as electric as their romance. As Pederson stepped down from the plane after a 9,000-mile flight, each recognized the other simultaneously.

ly. They rushed together to embrace and kiss madly.

They first heard of each other in January, through Laurence's brother who works with the Egyptian merchant marine in New York.

Pederson wooed her with his tape-recorded tones and such endearments as Gem of the Desert and "Princess of the Nile."

Ohio Jaycees Elect Blaiser As President

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Junior Chamber of Commerce at its annual convention here Sunday elected Clarence Blaiser of North Canton as president.

Other officers elected at the concluding session included national directors E. J. Platt, Canton; Earl Hecker, Marietta; and Clem Infield, Hamilton.

Six Jaycees from Salem attended the convention.

Revenues Gaining, But State Spending Gains Even Faster

NEW YORK (AP)—State revenues are gaining steadily but spending by the states is galloping ahead even faster.

So, more than half of the states are ordering a review of their tax structures, with one of the chief ideas—a usual one in such cases—how to squeeze out more money. This decade may come to be known as the Taxing '50s.

In the last year total revenues of the 48 states have gone up 6 per cent but general spending has gone up 9 per cent to hit a record high.

And when the legislatures of 45 states convene next year in regular session, the question what to do about it is likely to be more pressing than ever.

General revenues now top 16 billion dollars a year, with tax collections making up 11½ billion of that, and the rest coming from federal grants, various charges, leases and royalties.

Spending has risen above 17 billion dollars. The biggest items are: education, 5 billion; highways, just under 5 billion; public welfare 2½ billion; health and hospitals, 1½ billion.

Deficits have been piling up for some time. The Chamber of Commerce of the U.S. reports that indebtedness of the 48 states now tops 11 billion dollars. Struggling with the situation, the states rang up some 3,000 changes in their tax laws last year.

The Tax Foundation, a private, nonprofit research organization, in a report today on tax collections by the states in the first half of this decade, predicts that still more revisions are ahead.

Last year 25 states authorized tax studies, 16 to embrace the general tax structure. In 1950, only four were making such surveys.

The foundation notes that "tax studies frequently lead to new taxes."

70 Persons Attend 4-H Leaders Session

COLUMBIANA — Seventy attending the County Junior Leaders 4-H Club meeting at Firestone Park here Sunday evening, according to W. C. Roberts, associate farm agent.

Miss Marty Anderson of Columbiana was general chairman, and her father, Rev. A. A. Anderson, pastor of the Jerusalem Lutheran Church here, was the speaker.

ance "is equivalent to more than 200 divisions, over 2,000 naval ships and about 300 air squadrons as well as related supporting units."

With respect to economic aid, Eisenhower said basic power plants being built with American help are providing the necessary foundations for industrial and economic growth in South Korea and Formosa. Transportation facilities are being opened up in Cambodia and Thailand. New minerals developments were reported in Bolivia and Pakistan and "good progress" is reported in Southern Viet Nam towards settling thousands of refugees from Northern Viet Nam.

In addition to direct military and economic aid, the report said, defense support funds are given to countries which need help "to carry out an adequate defense effort and achieve or maintain economic stability." In Europe the only countries to receive such help were Spain and Yugoslavia, Eisenhower said, all the others being in the underdeveloped areas of the world, notably the Middle East and Asia.

Eisenhower reported that construction of five naval and air bases in Spain is "progressing satisfactorily." The United States is delivering weapons to modernize the Spanish armed forces which formed their first jet fighter plane unit during the last half of 1955, he said.

Yugoslavia, he reported, has received tanks, trucks, artillery, radio and radar and other materiel which together with advanced training techniques have "converted what were once largely guerrilla forces into a modern army."

America's Steel—

GROWS GROWS GROWS

Steel, the key industry in this nation's economy, is heading for greater and greater expansion. A survey just completed by American Iron and Steel Institute shows that iron and steel companies plan to add another 15 million tons to the nation's steel-making capacity within the next three years, with more to come.

Rising population, rising standards of living and a generally expanding economy are the needs to be met by this expansion. Sharp rises in the per capita use of steel, which includes anything and everything from kitchen knives to skyscrapers, has been directly affected by the increases in the steel-making capacity of the industry. The cost for steel expansion and modernization since the end of World War II has been more than seven billion dollars.

General revenues now top 16 billion dollars a year, with tax collections making up 11½ billion of that, and the rest coming from federal grants, various charges, leases and royalties.

Spending has risen above 17 billion dollars. The biggest items are: education, 5 billion; highways, just under 5 billion; public welfare 2½ billion; health and hospitals, 1½ billion.

Steel Is Growing Faster

THE STEEL industry plans to add another 15 million tons to the nation's steelmaking capacity in the next three years. The increase, already under way, is at the rate of above 5 million tons a year. As chart shows, previous expansion rate was only 3.6 million tons.

America's Steel Production Leads the World

INCREASES IN STEEL OUTPUT—1955 OVER 1954

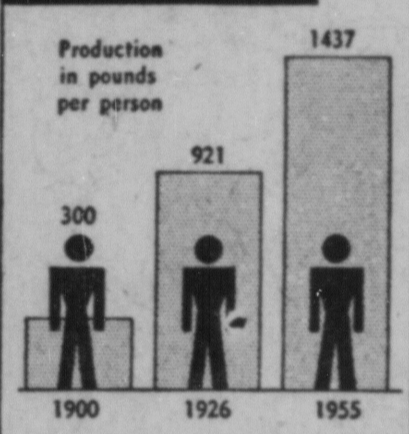

PERCENT OF WORLD STEEL OUTPUT—1955

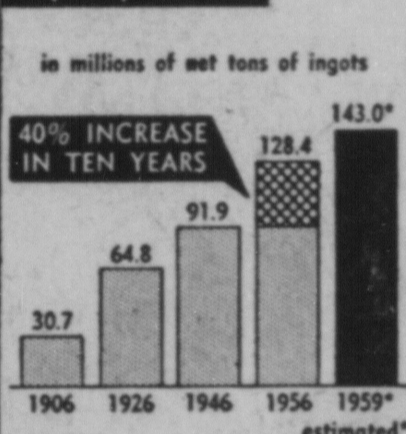

THE UNITED STATES produces 40 per cent or nearly half the world's steel. As chart, above, shows, we almost doubled output of Russia and her satellites. Last year, we made greater increases than the entire Soviet bloc. Figures are preliminary statistics from Iron Age magazine.

Rise in Use of Steel

PER CAPITA USE of steel in this country has increased fivefold since 1900. The chart, above, shows that in the United States today, three tons of steel-making capacity are required for every family of four.

Capacity Growth

AMERICA'S capacity for steel production has increased by 36 million tons or 40% since the end of World War II. As shown on above chart, today's capacity of 128 million tons will be increased to 143 millions by 1959.

"The idea is to expedite the count on candidates in which the public is interested," he said. "Pre-cinct officials who fail to comply with instructions will have their compensation withheld," he warned. "If they follow instructions, we should have returns at a reasonable hour," he added.

Salem Students Win Top Ratings In Music Contest

The Salem Junior High Orchestra, Eighth Grade Mixed Choir, and Ninth Grade Mixed Chorus received superior ratings, and numerous of the school's ensemble and vocal groups were given high ratings at the district Junior High School solo and ensemble contest Saturday at Lisbon.

Groups participating and ratings given include: Junior High Band, excellent; Seventh Grade Girls Ensemble, superior; Seventh and Eighth Grade Boys Ensemble, superior; Eighth Grade Girls Ensemble, excellent; Eighth Grade Mixed Ensemble, superior.

Accompanists for the vocal groups were Louise Oswald, Normadene Pim and Janet Williams.

speaker; Harry T. Marshall, Cleveland councilman for 20 years; Chalmers P. Wylie, Columbus city attorney, and J. Eugene Roberts of Hubbard, former Ohio senator and lieutenant governor nominee in 1950.

Supreme Court Race

In the only state Supreme Court race, former Gov. Thomas J. Herbert, now head of the Subversive Activities Control Board in Washington, and former Judge Henry A. Middleton of Toledo, seek the Republican nomination. Evan P. Ford of Columbus, former state senator, is unopposed for the Democratic nomination for the high court term starting Jan. 2.

Candidates for other statewide offices lack opposition or have only token rivalry. These offices are U.S. senator, secretary of state, auditor, treasurer, Supreme Court chief justice and high court judge for the Jan. 1 term. In one race—for treasurer nomination on the Democratic ticket — John Brown of Mentor and John W. Donahy of Hudson seek the nomination.

Both Gov. Frank J. Lausche and U.S. Sen. George M. Bender are assured the Democratic and Republican nomination, respectively, for the senatorial race in the general election Nov. 6, since neither has primary opposition.

Lausche also has accepted the role of "favorite son" presidential candidate for a slate of Ohio delegates to the Democratic national convention. Delegates to be elected Tuesday drew only nominal opposition in five congressional districts.

Pledged To Bricker

The Republican delegate slate lacks opposition. It is pledged to U.S. Sen. John W. Bricker in a holding maneuver for President Eisenhower.

In the presidential nominating conventions, Ohio Democrats will have 58 votes, Ohio Republicans 56. Both conventions are scheduled for August.

In other primary election issues, Ohio voters will nominate candidates for 23 congressional seats, 173 in the state Legislature, county offices, including some judges, and appellate court judges. On the local scene, a number of bond issues, tax levies and special questions will be decided.

Also elected in the primary will be members of the state and central county committees who run the party organizations.

examination of the military assistance portion of the administration's $4,900,000,000 foreign aid request.

John B. Hollister, director of the International Cooperation Administration, said during a television interview Sunday that economic aid to foreign countries will have to continue as long as there is "military danger."

He said a "big shift" is on to channel large portions of foreign aid away from Europe to the Far East but added that it "would be a great mistake" to throw too much in the direction of Asia.

"Some people seem to believe that the Far East is in the same situation as Europe after the war," Hollister said. "They don't realize that to spend a great deal

In the solo division ratings awarded were: clarinet, solo — Karen Klein, Lorraine Pardee and Riekey Eckstein, superior; saxophone — Tony Everett, Bill Reich, and Karen Greenisen, superior; and Fred Stockman, excellent; flute — Marjorie Vaughn, Charlene Vincent, and Ruth McCormick, superior; and Gail Gottschling, excellent; cornet — Bob Zeppernick, superior; David Buckholdt, excellent; trombone — Tom Lease, superior, and David Starbuck and Bob Dodge, excellent; and violin — Kathy Hrovatic, superior.

Vocal solists were comprised of Patricia Roof who received a superior rating; Anna Mae Elliott, excellent; Sherrill Hutson, excellent; Theresa Viola, superior; David Griffiths, excellent; Bob Zeppernick, excellent; Franklin Copacia, superior; and Pinckney Hall, superior.

Piano solists and ratings were Bonnie Minth, excellent; Patricia Dolansky, superior; Ilse Jeanne Davis, excellent; Sarah Wilde, superior; Sally Fesjer, excellent; Marilyn Fenton, excellent; Linda Scheller, very good; Judy Miller, excellent; Kay Kuhl, excellent; Louise Oswald, superior.

Other groups were: piano duo comprised of Ginnie Sterling and Bonnie Minth, superior; clarinet duet, Karen Wachsmith, Kathy Harris, excellent; flute trio, Ruth McCormick, Gail Gottschling, Nancy Tarleton, excellent; violin duet, Sarah Fitch, Linda Loop, superior; string quartet, Kathy Hrovatic, Kathy Weber, Kathleen Porter and Nancy Talbott, superior.

Accompanists for the solists were Dixie Wilde, Mrs. D. E. Lease, Ginnie Sterling, Kay Kuhl, Sarah Wilde, Karen Greenisen, Kifren Trombitas, and Carol Murphy. Richard Howenstine is director of the Junior High School orchestra and band, and F. Edwin Miller is director of the ninth grade chorus. Mrs. Betty Hoffmeister is in charge of the seventh and eighth grade vocal groups.
